WORK EXPERIENCE

Accenture Inc.

July 2023 - February 2025

Package App Development Analyst

As a CRM Developer, I am responsible for enhancing and improving CRM systems by integrating new features and functionalities to meet business needs. I work closely with finance and operations teams to ensure seamless integration of CRM solutions, optimizing workflows and data management. A key aspect of the role involves debugging and troubleshooting any issues that arise within the CRM application to maintain smooth and efficient performance. Meeting project deadlines is crucial, and I collaborate with clients to gather and understand their requirements, ensuring that the delivered solutions align with their expectations. Effective communication and technical expertise are vital to delivering robust and customized CRM solutions.
